URDU DEPARTMENTAL PROFILE

1. Introduction:

Late Sow. Kamaltai Jamkar Mahila Mahavidyalaya was established in 1983. The college has played an important and vital role in the development of minorities and with the demand of time it started URDU as a subject and thus established URDU DEPARTMENT in the college in 1997. After that, as per the demand of Muslim minority students, in 2009, the Urdu as Second Language has been introduced by the college. Which resulted in increase in students strength of Muslim girls.

The department has shown its involvement in all types of academic and co-curricular activities. Many literary and cultural programmes are being organized by the Urdu department. All these programmes are organised to strengthening national integration and have thus benefited social awakening among students, parents, new writers and poets. In a similar way, they were supported to create their own identity in literary circles and to get recognized in literature.

Another milestone in the development of department was introduction of "Certificate Course" which enabled Muslim girls to increase their command over Arabic language and solving their personal problems and understanding of holy books.
